

Patti Ross Milne
Co-Executive Producer/ Producer

Patti Ross Milne has over 30 years of teaching, performing and choreographic experience. She began her professional career with the Royal Winnipeg Ballet Company and went on to perform as a featured dancer on Broadway, throughout Canada and the United States in the American National Tour of the Agnes de Mille revival of Oklahoma. A teacher and choreographer for numerous universities, performing arts schools and dance studios in Toronto, New York, and Australia, Patti is also the founder of the dance program at the first performing arts high school in Mississauga, Ont.

In 1993, Patti formed Inside Out Productions and over a period of 10 years brought the finest teaching talent to the Toronto jazz scene. In 1997, she established the Work Yourself Inside Out Summer School - a training facility for serious dance and “triple threat” students. She is also the producer and director of the highly popular Just Jazz shows that burst onto the Toronto scene in 2000.

Recently, Patti is the creative driver behind the movie 40 Years of One Night Stands: The Story of Canada's Royal Winnipeg Ballet. In 1992 she wrote the idea for this documentary, but it took until June 2008, for her dream to be realized. She is proud to have partnered with Merit Jensen Carr as a Co-Executive Producer, to bring this story to the screen.
